

HELP WANTED...

The Lakeland Association of REALTORS® is seeking a few good persons to serve on its 2010 committees. Committees of the Association assist the board of directors with their day-to-day work as it pertains to special programs, professional standards, community outreach and more. If you would like to serve your Association and its members, please read through the descriptions of our committees and indicate your interest by placing a checkmark next to the committee(s) in which you have an interest.

Name: _____ Firm: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Affiliate/REALTOR® Membership Committee: Comprised of REALTOR® and Affiliate Members who show an interest in strengthening the Affiliate/REALTOR® relationship.

Grievance Committee/Professional Standards Committee: Comprised of REALTOR® members and is charged with reviewing ethics and arbitration requests and enforcing the REALTOR® Code of Ethics through the hearing process. Individual begin by serving on the Grievance Committee and then are eligible to move up to the Professional Standards Committee. Training is required to sit on either the Professional Standards or Grievance Committee.

Events Committee: Plans and executes projects beneficial to the community; creates and maintains a positive public image for the Lakeland Association of REALTORS®, Coordinates and arranges REALTOR® After Hours, other special functions and encourages attendance.

Education: Plans and coordinates programs to enhance member knowledge and professionalism.

Finance Committee: Make recommendations to invest association funds.

RPAC/RPIC: Establishes the Association as a recognized political force within the community; promotes voter registration; coordinates key contacts; monitors ordinances and legislation; keeps members aware of actions affecting the real estate industry. Arranges fundraising activities; encourages member contributions; promotes a positive political agenda at the Local, State and National levels.

Please fax form to : 863.688.8253 or email to larsbroadcast@lakelandrealtors.org